Come say hello at Picnic in the Park

The Office of the Health and Community Services Complaints Commissioner (HCSCC) will be at the Feast Festival's annual community picnic – Picnic in the Park.

The picnic, which will be held this Sunday, is an annual event that celebrates the end of the Feast Festival.

HCSCC Associate Professor Grant Davies said the picnic provided a chance for the HCSCC to reach the LGBTIQ+ community.

“All South Australians are consumers of health or community services,” Associate Professor Davies said.

“Participating in events like Picnic in the Park allow us to reach as many South Australians as we can.

“We are delighted to be at the picnic on Sunday and we hope you're able to come and speak with us – whether you are a consumer or a service provider.”

The Office of the HCSCC will be located at stall 13 and will have a variety of information available to take home, as well as items like pens, lens cloths, stress balls and our famous tea towels.
