

Tuesday, 14 November 2023

Interim Prohibition Order: Mr Lyndon Kemp

The Health and Community Services Complaints Commissioner Associate Professor Grant Davies has issued an Interim Prohibition Order against Mr Lyndon Kemp of West Beach.

Mr Kemp, who provides in-home massage services, is alleged to have breached the Code of Conduct for Certain Health Care Workers.

The Interim Prohibition Order commenced at 11.59pm yesterday (13 November 2023).

Mr Kemp is temporarily banned from offering massage therapy services to female clients for 12 weeks while the HCSCC investigates.

Associate Professor Davies explained his Office had recently received information about Mr Kemp, including allegations about inappropriate touching and other behaviour.

“Once I became aware of the allegations, I took action to protect the health and safety of the South Australian public which is always my chief consideration in these matters,” Associate Professor Davies said.

If any members of the public has received massage therapy services from Mr Kemp and have concerns, they can email info@hcscc.sa.gov.au or call the HCSCC on 7117 9313.

As this matter is an active investigation, the HSCSS is unable to provide further comment.